

Monologue from Spider-Man 3

AUNT MAY: Oh, Peter.

The day your Uncle Ben asked me to marry him, we were so scared.

And excited.

And very young.

And I loved him so fiercely.

But I said no.

I wanted to say yes, but I said no.

I wasn't ready. Neither was he.

So we took our time.

Looked forward to it.

Didn't want to run into something with nothing to count on but love.

A man has to be understanding... and put his wife before himself.

Can you do that, Peter?

(Hears Peter's affirmative response)

Then you have my blessing.

I hope you've considered a proper proposal.

Your uncle had it all planned.

He took me to the beach one Sunday.

Oh, he was a knockout in his bathing suit.

And I didn't look too bad myself.

We were very good swimmers.

And it was a beautiful day and he said:

"Let's swim to the island."

And at the island, we found a perfect spot by an old tree... and we lay down and looked up at the sky.

And then he said, "Close your eyes, May."

And I did. And then he said, "Open them."

And I did.

And he was holding this ring.

Dazzling... in front of me.

I thought it was the sun.

We'd be married 50 years... come August if...

So...

I hope you'll make it very special for Mary Jane.

Do something she'll never forget.

Give her this.

Go on. Take it.
